

PRIVACY POLICY

Divorce Financial Associates, LLC has adopted the following Privacy Policy

It is our policy to protect the confidential nature of all personal information obtained from clients. We will not intentionally disclose personal information, including Social Security numbers, to third parties without authorization.

Your Social Security number may be visible on certain documents that you provide to us in the course of our engagement. We will only use your Social Security number as a source of identification with an investment account or retirement account inquiry that is within the scope of the engagement.

Divorce Financial Associates, LLC protects Social Security numbers as it protects all of its clients' confidential information. We use commercially reasonable safeguards on our computer system to prevent unauthorized access to client information. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with professional standards.

Only the staff at Divorce Financial Associates, LLC have access to client information and then only on a "need to know" basis. Divorce Financial Associates, LLC will hold this information in the strictest confidence and will not release it to persons outside of the organization without your permission or as required by law.

Divorce Financial Associates, LLC will dispose of all business records that contain personal information by making it unreadable or undecipherable or by shredding it, erasing it or by other means available.
